EXPERIENCES

Fullstack Developer Junior II

Lovel Technology. | Mai - 2024 - Now

- I work on developing a platform aimed at recruiting technology professionals. I am responsible for the creation and implementation of new functionalities, ensuring efficient solutions aligned with user and market demands.
- I also work directly with cloud infrastructure, using AWS services such as S3, for storage, and Cognito, for user authentication and management. My focus is to create a scalable, secure and high-performance environment, applying good development and infrastructure practices.
